NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF TEACHING

Apply for our new NPQEL

Why choose NIoT?

Our new NPQEL is designed by serving Executive Leaders and takes a fresh approach to the programme, whilst remaining faithful to the DfE framework. It is tailored to the range of experience and responsibilities of Executive Leaders and truly responds to the challenges and opportunities of leadership at this level.

Who can apply?

Aspiring, new, and established Executive Leaders.

The programme will be carefully differentiated, whilst preserving opportunities for relationship building and mutual learning.

What will I learn?

You will learn about:

- The different modes and operating scales of Executive Leadership
- The complex/persistent challenges of the role and how to solve them
- The experiences of other Executive Leaders.

And you will learn to:

- Act through and with other leaders
- Apply research and best practice at scale
- Deal with difficulty and embed culture at a distance
- Instigate, manage and navigate change sustainably
- Diagnose, prioritise and maximise impact.

How is it assessed?

- Entry diagnostic
- Formative termly assessment
- Summative case study assessment.

How long does it take?

- 18 months
- First cohort: autumn 2022.

How much does it cost?

The cost of this programme is usually £3,070 but scholarship funding is available for most participants.

Check gov.uk for more information.

Where and how will I learn?

You will be a member of a national cohort and will be required to travel to a central location for conferences. Small group delivery and individual coaching will be done online or locally.

How can I apply?
